

Name of the Institution	École nationale des sciences géographiques (ENSG)
Erasmus code	F ST-MAND01
Web site	http://www.ensg.eu
Head of Institution	Nicolas Paparoditis

ERASMUS Institutional coordinators	Claire DRIESENS
Address	École Nationale des Sciences Géographiques 6/8 avenue Blaise Pascal, Cité Descartes Champs sur Marne 77455 MARNE LA VALLEE CEDEX 2 France
Email	international@ensg.eu
Telephone	+33 1 64 15 31 95

Detailed requirements and additional information

Prerequisites	Degree in Engineering studies related to Geomatics, Surveying, Geoinformatics, Mathematics, Computer science
Courses programs	https://www.ensg.eu/Degree
Language requirement Student Mobility for Studies	We insist that our exchange students should have a good knowledge of French to attend classes and take exams. All courses are taught in French , the minimal required level is B2 (Common European Framework of Reference)
Language requirement Staff Mobility for Teaching	French or English, the minimal required level is B2 (Common European Framework of Reference).
Calendar	Winter term : May 15th Spring term : October 31th
Application procedure	An nomination email must be sent to international@ensg.eu by the international office of the partner institution. We will then send the application file to the nominated student.
Decision Response	The ENSG will send its decision within 4 weeks

All the necessary information on the Erasmus program is available on the website:

Living conditions
International Student Guide	http://www.ensg.eu/IMG/pdf/livret_accueil_dshei_ensg.pdf
Housing/Accommodation for foreign students in France	Contact: international@ensg.eu and secretariat@ensg.eu
Estimated cost of living	800 € / month
Health coverage for foreign students in France	All students must have health care coverage to study in France: either private health insurance, French student social security or European health insurance. -EU/EEA students can request an "E1 1" European health card in their home countries.
Food/Catering at the ENSG	-Subsidized self-service restaurant (11:30 a.m.-2 pm) -Subsidized luncheon snack bar (8 am - 6 pm)
Local transport between the ENSG and Paris	Suburban train - 25 min from the center of Paris, Local transport card (weekly or monthly)
Visa and insurance	http://www.diplomatie.gouv.fr/